Great Lakes Cremation Services Membership

$150

Through simple membership, your instructions are kept on file along with the biographical information required for filing a death certificate and carrying out your wishes as you have instructed. You may change your instructions at anytime during your lifetime by contacting Great Lakes Cremation Services. There is a one time, non-refundable fee to become a member of Great Lakes Cremation Services. Membership allows you to purchase at the prevailing membership price, but does not include travel protection.

Travel Protection

Included in Direct Cremation Package

For those members who enjoy travel, Great Lakes Cremation Services offers Travel Protection at no additional charge. Should death occur outside of Michigan, Great Lakes Cremation Services will provide all services originally contracted for at no additional cost PROVIDING that Great Lakes Cremation Services is the first and only service provider to be notified of the beneficiary's death (thus eliminating unnecessary duplicative charges to Great Lakes Cremation Services or beneficiary's family) and the death occurs within the 48 contiguous United States.

Additional Services

Great Lakes Cremation Services provides no additional services beyond simple cremation. That is how we are able to keep our costs low and reasonable for our members. If a family is interested in the services of a full service funeral home for visitations, gatherings and memorial services, Great Lakes Cremation Services will assist in referring the family to an affiliated funeral home.
